Excerpt: . sand pounds will make you the envied owner of a place worth a hundred thousand. We dine at the Eltons to-night, do we not? I asked musingly. We do. You cannot have forgotten that engagement and Lady Sibyl so soon surely! he answered laughing. No, I have not forgotten --I said at last, after a little silence. And I will buy this Willowsmere. I will telegraph instructions to my lawyers at once. Will you give me the name and address of the agents? With pleasure, my dear boy! And Lucio handed me a letter containing the particulars concerning the sale of the estate and other items. But are you not making up your mind rather suddenly? Hadn t you better inspect the property first? There may be things you object to If it were a rat-infested barrack, I said resolutely-- I would still buy it! I shall settle the matter at once. I wish to let Lord Elton know this very night that I am the future owner of Willowsmere! Good ! --and my companion thrust his arm through mine as we left the smoking-room together-- I like your swiftness of action, Geoffrey. It is admirable! I always respect determination. Even if a man makes up his mind to go to hell, I honour him for keeping to his word, and going there straight as a die! I laughed, and we parted in high good-humour, --he to fulfil a club engagement, I to...
