E2 2009n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)613333786 Subject: Predatory lending -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 13 Journal, and had that occurred, we may well have lost a significant number of Members. And I think every Member remembers essentially the chaos and concern - concern understates it - that Members had about feeling disconnected, and nothing physically happened in Washington. Obviously a crash happened at the Pentagon, but in the Capitol complex nothing physically happened. But we know that there was a great disconnect of the Congress for a significant period of time when we reconvened - a significant number of Members - at the Capitol Police station, as you remember, you and I were there Mr. Chairman - the angst that Members felt about being disconnected and how they could get back together as a Congress to be able to respond were very serious. And I think that is what Congressman Langevin is appropriately focused on. I look forward to hearing the testimony of all of our witnesses, all of whom are very thoughtful observers of government themselves and will have some thoughts on this. I thank you for thinking anew, if you will, and trying to figure out how we respond to a contingency that up to this point in time has essentially been one that none of us has really felt was a real one because we thought our homeland was secure, and indeed many felt it was invulnerable. We found that out to be not the case. Not only do we need to contemplate, obviously, terrorists or states that might visit harm on us, but in my own district..
