By Joseph Hart

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Stranger, namesake of Camus little masterpiece, is a collection of poems, all with either rhythm or meter, some with rhyme, that has nothing to do with Camus or his novel. The poems were written as Burns is said to have written. Each poem is the result of something I saw, thought or fantasized. Off the cuff poems. Some of the poems were written last year, some six months ago, some a few days ago. And poems written recently, like goldfish taken out of their bowl, begin to stink in two days.
